Note

The accompanying petition addressed to the Dewan is from one Haralahalli Ramanjaya, a resident in Mysore, stating that his daughter's son Arekere Venkatappa Gowda by name, is blind of both eyes having been struck by lightning and also paralytic on the right side, and is unable to pull on his existence without somebody to help him on, and praying that rice allowances &c, sufficient for the maintenance of the blind man and his helper, may be ordered to be granted from any of the Annapathrams in either of the Nanjangud and the Srirangapatam Taluks.

On the petition, the Dewan has been pleased to order "Please hear what this man says and see what can be done for the blind man."

There are some savings amma effected in the Chatram at Seringapatam. If approved, one seer of rice / dosa with condiments may be ordered to be given from Chatram.
